

UNESCO THE BALIC SEA PROJECT
Teacher training February 7-10, 2013
Programme

1.day, February 7 – Thursday

Arrival

17.30 Tea and small snacks in Tartu Environmental Education Centre. Introduction of participants and get to know each other and our centre.

20.00 Dinner in cafe Noir.

Accommodation in Villa Margaretha.

2.day, February 8 – Friday

9.15 Travel from hotel Margaretha to Alam–Pedja.

Introduction of the Alam-Pedja and Palupõhja area by Robert Oetjen.

13.00 Lunch

Treasure hunt in forest: Daiga Martinsone, Vika Vasilevska, Sandra Jekovica (Latvia).

Animal tracks in the nature with Aire Orula and Robert Oetjen about 3 hours.

Tea break

Methods fair – participants introduce their teaching methods:

- Role-play about the Baltic Sea Niina-Kaisa Puustinen and Jaana Rätty (Finland)
- Brain ring for learning English and nature: Regina Budnitskaya and Marina Petrova (Russia)
- Upstream and downstream the Okhta river in St Petersburg The start of an environmental history investigation: Regina Budnitskaya and Marina Petrova (Russia)
- The sea as a biotope: Camilla Todsén (Denmark)
- How to calculate areas? Peter Ochsner (Denmark). Please add links!
- The Baltic Sea languages: Niina-Kaisa Puustinen (Finland)

Games and sauna.

Accommodation in Nature School in sleeping bags.

3.day, February 9 – Saturday

9.00 Breakfast and packing.

9.45 How to use digital guides for lichens interpretation. Smart phone app for nature education and possibilities to use in BSP.

11.00 Departure from Palupõhja

11.20 Hike in Selli-Sillaotsa nature trail and visiting sightseeing tower

13.00 Lunch in Tartu in Margaretha

Lab exercises to the theme of the Baltic Sea by Aire Orula.

Overview of Estonia environmental education system by Kersti Sõgel.

Joint future development by all participants.

Conclusions of training, feedback.

20.00 Dinner and social evening in Tartu Jazz Club.

Accommodation in Villa Margaretha in Tartu

4.day, February 10 – Sunday

5.20 and 6.30 leave Latvian and Lithuanian participants. At 7 will leave Jaana.

9.00 taxis will take you to Tartu Environmental Education Centre (TEEC) with all you luggage.

9.30 Certificates about participation in international training. App development for BSP programs: rivers, water, coast.

11.30 For those who can departure later walk in Tartu.

12.30 lunch in Werner

Departure